

JOE H. TONAHILL

LAWYER

TONAHILL BUILDING

DALLAS, TEXAS 75201

December 2, 1964

DUDLEY 4-2501

JOE BOB GOLDEN

Dick West, Esq.
Editorial Department
Dallas Morning News
Dallas, Texas

Dear Dick:

It's been a year now since I took up semi-residence in Dallas in the Jack Ruby trial and started getting reacquainted with a great host of old friends and acquainted with a lot of new ones, including yourself, Jack Krueger, my old college chum Joe Dealey, and those elegant craftsmen of yours who maintain general quarters in the Criminal District Courts Building for the duration. I refer to Hugh Aynesworth, Tony Zoppi, Carl Freund, Jack Beers, Griff Singer, Don Martin, Larry Dum, Tom Dilliard, John Flynn, Larry Grove, Kent Biffle, Joe Laird, Louis Harris, Clint Grant, Glenn Moore, Bill Winfred, Don Millsap, James Birmingham, John Gedde, and many, many more, of course.

Over the years of my trial work in the past I have done some litigating in the courts of Dallas, but not too much; however, I have had occasion to enjoy the incomparable process service and accommodations of Mr. Bill Shaw, the District Clerk, and his highly efficient organization of deputies and assistants.

In addition, it has been my pleasure and privilege to enjoy similar outstanding work in behalf of Sheriff Bill Decker and his deputies in this regard.

Both Mr. Shaw and Mr. Decker have impressed me with the highly efficient organizations they operate in behalf of the citizenry of Dallas County. I suppose

JOE BOB GOLDEN

JOHN W. TOMAHILL
JASPER, TEXAS 75851
December 2, 1961

Dick West, Esq.
Editorial Department
Dallas Morning News
Dallas, Texas

Dear Dick:

It's been a long time since I took up semi-residence in Dallas in the Ross Hotel and started getting reacquainted with a great host of old friends and acquainted with a lot of new ones, including yourself, Jack Krueger, my old college chum Joe Dealey, and those student craftsmen of yours who maintain general order in the Criminal District Courts Building for the duration. I refer to Hugh Aynesworth, Tony Roper, Carl Frazar, Jack Beers, Griff Singer, Don Martin, Larry Dunn, Tom Dilliard, John Flynn, Larry Goble, Gene Biffle, Joe Laird, Louis Hardy, Clint Owen, Glenn Moore, Bill Winfred, Don Millies, James Cunningham, John Gedge, and many, many more, of course.

Over the years of my legal work in the past I have done some litigating in the courts of Dallas, but not much of it, however. I have had occasion to enjoy the excellent food and accommodations of Mr. Bill Ross, the Ross Hotel, and his highly efficient business office and capable assistants.

Therefore, it has been my privilege to call on Mr. Bill Ross, Sheriff

JOE H. TONAHILL
LAWYER
TONAHILL BUILDING
JASPER, TEXAS 75951

DUDLEY 4-2501

December 2, 1964

Dick West, Esq.
Editorial Department
Dallas Morning News
Dallas, Texas

Dear Dick:

It's been a year now since I took up semi-residence in Dallas in the Jack Ruby trial and started getting reacquainted with a great host of old friends and acquainted with a lot of new ones, including yourself, Jack Krueger, my old college chum Joe Dealey, and those elegant craftsmen of yours who maintain general quarters in the Criminal District Courts Building for the duration. I refer to Hugh Aynesworth, Tony Zoppi, Carl Freund, Jack Beers, Griff Singer, Don Martin, Larry Dum, Tom Dilliard, John Flynn, Larry Grove, Kent Biffle, Joe Laird, Louis Harris, Clint Grant, Glenn Moore, Bill Winfred, Don Millsap, James Birmingham, John Gedde, and many, many more, of course.

Over the years of my trial work in the past I have done some litigating in the courts of Dallas, but not too much; however, I have had occasion to enjoy the incomparable process service and accommodations of Mr. Bill Shaw, the District Clerk, and his highly efficient organization of deputies and assistants.

In addition, it has been my pleasure and privilege to enjoy similar outstanding work in behalf of Sheriff Bill Decker and his deputies in this regard.

Both Mr. Shaw and Mr. Decker have impressed me with the highly efficient organizations they operate in behalf of the citizenry of Dallas County. I suppose

I have dealt with half of the District Clerks, their deputies, and Sheriffs and their deputies in the State of Texas at one time or another in my career. I respect them all as they all have hard jobs to perform and are, in my opinion, underpaid and unappreciated.

I must say, however, in passing that Decker and Shaw seem to me to be highly dedicated men with the idea of service being uppermost in their minds and the minds of their deputies.

While genial Judge Joe B. Brown and I had many, many differences during the trial, nevertheless I developed a very strong feeling of personal affection for Joe because of his complete human qualities and extreme patience with both the State and defense counsel. I wouldn't be worthy of my profession if I couldn't appreciate Joe Brown's good qualities irrespective of the fact that I have disagreed and will continue to disagree with him so enormously in the future concerning some of his rulings during the trial.

My old friend Henry "Hank" Wade and his staff of assistants, more especially Jim Bowie, Bill Alexander, Frank Watts, and Coy Turrington, who I had the privilege of working with--or should I say ~~ducking and dodging~~--throughout the trial, have all left deep imprints upon my memory. While I have known Hank for perhaps twenty years and have great respect for his ability as a prosecutor and admiration for his qualities of a man, husband, and father, I came to know him much better and get well acquainted with these gentlemen as well as some others on his staff. They do their jobs well, fight hard, fight to win.

Naturally I hope to prove that they led Judge Joe into a host of errors, but as the advocate that I am and in behalf of the principles I am fighting for in this case and the appellate efforts, I could do no less. Once during the trial someone asked me what I thought of Hank Wade. I responded immediately and quite ~~spontaneously that I had rather fight Sonny Liston than~~ to fight Henry Wade in the courtroom. I still mean that.

Chief of Police Jessie Curry and his staff of officers and the detectives and Dallas police couldn't have been nicer to us than they were. We hope to reverse the case on one of the main grounds of testimony of five of the officers, but be that as it may, they were all gentlemen at every turn and seem to be well trained police officers. That is a department that the citizenry of Dallas can well be proud of.

As I say, I may have to disagree with them, and will disagree with them in a number of respects upon the appeal. But, nevertheless, the people of Dallas have every reason to appreciate them.

The church services my family and I attended there certainly gave us that spiritual leavening that ~~can be so meaningful to one working under so great stress.~~

Finally, Dick, the great hospitality of your growing and fascinating city was marvelous and incomparable. This is especially true of the personnel of the stores, restaurants, and hotels, the clerks, waitresses, cab drivers, and the many others who were so kind to us which will always be appreciated.

Please do not judge my gratitude of your town and your neighbors as being in any respect a weakness of

Dick West, Esq.
December 2, 1964
Page 4

my position that it was unfair to Jack Ruby and Dallas as well for his trial to be held there.

Dick, I don't know when our trails will cross again, but it is always a pleasure to visit with you and on your next tour of the East woods, drop by and I will cook you some barbecue and introduce you to my friends over here.

With all good wishes, I am

Cordially yours,

Joe H. Tonahill

JHT:vm

JOE H. TONAHILL

LAWYER
TONAHILL BUILDING
JASPER, TEXAS

JOE BOB GOLDEN

December 2, 1964

A. C. Green, Esq.
Editorial Department
Dallas Times Herald
Dallas, Texas

Dear A. C.:

It's been a year now since I took up semi-residence in Dallas in the Jack Ruby trial and started getting reacquainted with a great host of old friends and acquainted with a lot of new ones, including yourself and those elegant craftsmen of yours who maintained general quarters in the Criminal District Courts Building for the duration.

I refer to Jerry Richmond, Dick McCune, Bob Fenley, Jim Keith, John Massiotta, Bob Jackson, Andy Hansen, Eamon Kennedy, Bob Taylor, Darrell Melkas, Jim Lehrer, Stan Weinberg, Jim Featherston, Willie Allen, and many, many more, of course.

Over the years of my trial work in the past I have done some litigating in the courts of Dallas, but not too much; however, I have had occasion to enjoy the incomparable process service and accommodations of Mr. Bill Shaw, the District Clerk, and his highly efficient organization of deputies and assistants.

In addition, it has been my pleasure and privilege to enjoy similar outstanding work in behalf of Sheriff Bill Decker and his deputies in this regard.

Both Mr. Shaw and Mr. Decker have impressed me with the highly efficient organizations they operate in behalf of the citizenry of Dallas County. I suppose

C
O
P
Y

JOE H. TONAHILL

LAWYER
TONAHILL BUILDING
JASPER, TEXAS

JOE BOB GOLDEN

December 2, 1964

A. C. Green, Esq.
Editorial Department
Dallas Times Herald
Dallas, Texas

Dear A. C.:

It's been a year now since I took up semi-residence in Dallas in the Jack Ruby trial and started getting reacquainted with a great host of old friends and acquainted with a lot of new ones, including yourself and these elegant craftsmen of yours who maintained general quarters in the Criminal District Courts Building for the duration.

I refer to Jerry Richmond, Dick McCune, Bob Fenley, Jim Keith, John Massiotta, Bob Jackson, Andy Hanson, Eamon Kennedy, Bob Taylor, Darrell Helke, Jim Lehrer, Stan Weinberg, Jim Featherston, Willie Allen, and many, many more, of course.

Over the years of my trial work in the past I have done some litigating in the courts of Dallas, but not too much; however, I have had occasion to enjoy the incomparable process service and accommodations of Mr. Bill Shaw, the District Clerk, and his highly efficient organization of deputies and assistants.

In addition, it has been my pleasure and privilege to enjoy similar outstanding work in behalf of Sheriff Bill Decker and his deputies in this regard.

Both Mr. Shaw and Mr. Decker have impressed me with the highly efficient organizations they operate in behalf of the citizenry of Dallas County. I suppose

C
O
P
Y